Pieter Bruegel Paintings

April 30th, 2020 - Pieter Bruegel the Elder's paintings were well known for being impressively large pieces which featured both dramatic landscape scenes and also imaginative portrayals of local life within them. Each character would be involved in a different activity to the next and this would make each of his paintings very intriguing with considerable amounts of detail to cover for the viewer.'

'Houseboat Amsterdam Brueghel Super Central Houseboat

May 1st, 2020 - I welcome you aboard this charming private studio on my houseboat built in 1907 and docked just 3 minutes walking from Central Station. Lots of interesting places are found around the corner such as the Red Light District, Dam Square, Nieuwmarkt and the Maritime Museum. Still our harbor is surprisingly quiet and easy going. No tourist masses, just locals living their happy lives.'

'The Tower of Babel Bruegel

April 25th, 2020 - The Tower of Babel was the subject of three paintings by Pieter Bruegel the Elder. The first, a miniature painted on ivory, was painted while Bruegel was in Rome and is now lost. The two surviving paintings, often distinguished by the prefix Great and Little, are in the Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna, and the Museum Boijmans Van Beuningen in Rotterdam respectively.'
